REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 1967-1968

SPEAKING FOR THE HOSPITAL'S TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees has completed its first year with lay members playing a significant role in its functions.

I am sincerely grateful to Mr. Edward Zapp, Mr. B. Howard Flanagan and Dr. E. LaFond for the generous and genuine manner in which they have represented the community and participated in the work of the Board.

I am grateful, too, to Mr. Gene Bakke, our first lay administrator, who has discharged his difficult duties with dedication. He has ably brought to the board the background needed to make judicious decisions, and he has implemented those decisions effectively.

Now, with expanded and improved facilities available to the residents of the St. Cloud area, we look forward to an ever-deeper commitment on the part of the hospital family to the enriching task of rendering high quality health care. To this end I am sure that we—Board, Medical Staff, Personnel, Sisters, Students—will continue to give the best of ourselves and our resources.

MOTHER HENRITA, O.S.B.
President, Board of Trustees

BOARD OF TRUSTEES: Mother Henrita, O.S.B.; Dr. E. LaFond; Sister Clyde, O.S.B.; Sister Mary Patrick, O.S.B.; Mr. Edward Zapp; Mother Richarda, O.S.B.; Mr. B. Howard Flanagan.

The above summary indicates clearly that the most significant factor in determining the total cost of hospital care is the cost of personnel. Approximately two-thirds of every dollar paid to the hospital is in turn paid to our employees in salaries and related benefits. Hospital costs are more clearly understood when it is noted that the ratio of personnel to patients approaches three full-time employees for each patient.

THE MEDICAL STAFF AND ITS PRINCIPAL COMMITTEES

"As I write this, we have used our new Southwest Wing for its first few days. New routines and the geography of the new addition will become familiar; but with the strangeness of new surroundings, an awareness has come to me of the variety of services offered by our hospital, the numerous skills required of our staff, and the complexities of operating a general hospital. Our expanded hospital stands today as testimony to the dedication and involvement of the Sisters of the Order of St. Benedict in the lives of the people of our community. A recurring conclusion during the past year has been the vital necessity of close communication and cooperation between the medical staff, the hospital administration, and the Board of Trustees. The changes that have occurred in the composition of the Board and in the Administration all seem necessary in view of the changing events in government and medical care. I believe changes are now necessary in the staff organization and the staff by-laws to fulfill our part in the broadening program of medical care offered by St. Cloud Hospital."

Concerning the 1968 Development Program...

"It was during the course of the 1967-68 fiscal year that the first public fund drive in the history of St. Cloud Hospital was conducted. While not fully successful, the campaign in support of our current $10-million construction and renovation program did raise almost $900,000 in gifts and pledges, making it the largest amount of money ever given a capital drive in this area. We want to thank all of those who worked as volunteer solicitors, and those who, in so many instances, gave so generously. Throughout the year, the building program saw the virtual completion of the Southwest Wing, and final plans for the Northwest Wing (Extended Care and Rehabilitation Facility) were made. Also finalized were plans to renovate the upper floors of the original building.

"We cordially invite you to tour our new facilities as we expand to serve the needs of the sick of Central Minnesota."

GENE BAKKE
Administrator

THE NEW SOUTHWEST WING

Our new Southwest Wing, virtually completed during the 1967-68 fiscal year, was dedicated on Sunday, August 4, 1968.

The wing, representing an investment of $6,000,000 includes 72 of the finest patient rooms on the fourth, fifth and sixth floors, each with individual heating and air conditioning; a new nursery, delivery and labor rooms on the third floor; a 30-bed Mental Health Unit on the second floor; emergency area, x-ray department, Coronary Care and Intensive Care Units on the first floor; a new surgery suite, pharmacy and Central-Service department on the ground level; with storerooms, mechanical equipment and archive-storage on the basement level.

Since the end of the fiscal year, construction has been initiated on the Northwest Wing, another major extension of the hospital structure.

THE HOSPITAL'S EDUCATIONAL ROLE

Inherent in the operation of the St. Cloud Hospital is the training and education of individuals in advanced skills and techniques essential to successful hospital-services and health care. The four distinct, accredited schools and the related training programs of the Hospital fulfill a broad obligation to the public and provide a source of specialized, fully-oriented personnel to maintain the hospital's high standards of professional competence.

A FULLY-ACCREDITED SCHOOL OF NURSING enrolls annually about 150 students.

42 Nurses were graduated during the 1968 year.

THE SCHOOL OF RADIOLOGICAL TECHNOLOGY offers an intensive 24-month course. Approximately 150 professional X-Ray Technicians have graduated from this course since it was established at St. Cloud Hospital.

9 X-Ray Technicians were graduated during the past year.

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY offers a 12-month course for students who have already completed a minimum of 3 years of college preparation. Upon completion of the course in this School, graduates are awarded a Bachelor's degree from their respective colleges.

11 Medical Technicians were graduated during 1967-68.

THE SCHOOL OF ANESTHESIA is an integral part of the hospital, offering an 18-month program to persons previously qualified as Registered Nurses.

3 Nurse Anesthetists completed this course during the past year.

IN ADDITION to the role of the above schools, St. Cloud Hospital functions as a clinical training institution for enrollees in the Licensed Practical Nursing program of the St. Cloud Area Vocational-Technical School. The hospital's Social Service department cooperates with area colleges to provide supervised experience for students in Social studies. Also, a continuous in-service educational program for the hospital staff is carried on throughout the year to familiarize personnel with the latest techniques and equipment.

NEW HOSPITAL DEPARTMENTS:

CORONARY CARE DEPARTMENT

Established in September, 1967, to provide very specialized attention to patients assigned for coronary care. Its concentrated treatment is comparable to that accorded other patients in the Intensive Care unit. The Coronary Care Department is now established in an ideal environment in the new Southwest Wing.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE

Inaugurated in November, 1967, with Mr. Morley Glicken as director. Mr. Glicken received his MSW degree from the University of Washington. The department extends consultation and assistance to patients and their families who have personal, social or financial needs or problems which relate to the patient's well-being and ultimate recovery.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Since January, 1968, the hospital has consolidated responsibility for its publications, communications, information services, and the hospital telephone services in this department. Sanford "Sam" Wenstrom, with a considerable background in public relations and civic service, was appointed director of the new department.
